

the late John Blakiston, who was a soldier in the revolutionary war,

The resolution in favor of Thomas Jones, of Anne Arundel county, a soldier of the revolutionary war,

And the resolution in favor of William Price, son and heir of George Price, deceased.

Were severally read a second, and by special order, a third time and dissented from.

On motion of Mr. Sewell, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill entitled, an act to establish the divisional lines between Harford and Cecil counties.

Mr. Dennis, moved to amend the bill, as follows—

1st. Strike out the word 'Hugh Ely, of Baltimore county,' in the first section.

2d. At the end of the 1st section, add the following viz: 'and in case the said four persons are equally divided in opinion, they or a majority of them, shall choose an umpire to establish said line, and in case the said four commissioners should not agree on a fifth, that then they are required to report their proceedings and views to the next General Assembly.'

And the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The question was then put shall the bill pass.

The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Marriott, Prest. Kennedy, Sewell,
Smith.—4.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Harrison, Heath, Herbert,
Rees—4.

Determined in the negative, so the bill was rejected.

Mr. Kennedy, from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act incorporating the Frederick town savings institution passed at December session 1827.

The said bill was then read a second time.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
